

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Kimberly Mills
Communications Director
Lifetrack Resources
(651) 265-2327

Lifetrack Resources awarded three-year CARF Accreditation

SAINT PAUL, Minn. (December 15, 2009) – CARF International announced that Lifetrack Resources has been accredited for a period of three years for Employment Services: Community Employment Services Job Development, Job Supports, Job Site Training and Employment Planning Services.

This accreditation decision represents the highest level of accreditation that can be awarded to an organization and shows the organizations' substantial conformance to the CARF standards. An organization receiving a Three-Year Accreditation has put itself through a rigorous peer review process and has demonstrated to a team of surveyors during an on-site visit that its programs and services are of the highest quality, measurable and accountable.

About Lifetrack Resources

Lifetrack Resources is a non-profit human services organization with a mission to work together to develop the strengths within children, families and adults facing the greatest life challenges so that all families and individuals are strong, healthy and productive members of the community. Lifetrack has served the Twin Cities community for more than 60 years; annually helping people create a better life through our focus on Child & Family Healthy Development and Employments & Economic Opportunity. To learn more about Lifetrack Resources, visit www.lifetrackresources.org.

About CARF

CARF is an independent, nonprofit accrediting body whose mission is to promote the quality, value and optimal outcomes of services through a consultative accreditation process that centers on enhancing the lives of the persons serviced. Founded in 1966 as the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities, and now known as CARF, the accrediting body establishes consumer-focused standards to help organizations measure and improve the quality of their programs and services.

###